ARTFUL LEADERSHIP WORKSHOP

THE GROWTH
CONVERSATION

Seeing and being are connected
How I see you, tells the world how to look back at me

Leading with Empathy starts with seeing while you look.
"Artful Leadership" workshops use art as a portal to knowing self and others.

Use art to explore
what you see,
connect it to what
you already know,
and expand your thoughts through curiosity into new ways of knowing,
being and leading.

Objective and topics covered

- How to see while looking. Overcoming bias with learned empathy.
- Understand what Emotional Intelligence is and how is connected to heightened awareness.
- Know how Empathy and organizational success are critically connected.

Learning Outcomes

- You will learn to critically look at art, and at your team.
- You will learn to observe your own bias when looking.
- You will develop a deeper understanding of what EI is.
- Acquire new tools for developing EI in self and others.
- Understand what Empathy is, and what it is not.
- Understand "Organisational Empathy" and how it is connected to organizational success and how you can impact it.

Audience

- Anyone in a leadership role.
- People in Industries where understanding and connecting with people is important.
- Managers of all levels, responsible for their team engagement and performance.
- Teams where understanding diversity and building Inclusion is a focus.
